Nursery News

A big welcome to Richard, Connie, Julian and Hailie and their families.

We have had some lovely weather this week - let's hope it continues! The children have been making full use of the garden. They have been experimenting with water, pouring, measuring and digging in the soil.

Upcoming Events

Autumn Walks - 10th and 11th October

For those of you who have not been before we take the children to York House Gardens for a little Autumn Walk which they love! They look at the different leaf shapes, identifying trees, play in the swishy grass and find squirrels and spiders webs and finish running up the grass banks in the sunken garden. Any parents wishing to join us are more than welcome and sign up sheets will be up in the Nursery soon!

Christmas Concert - Wednesday 20th December 11:00am in the Church

Adult Led Activities:

- Hand prints for our Autumn Tree on the Parish Room Display Board
- Conker rolling

Voice of the Child:

"My Daddy has two names Daddy and Harry"

"The advocado man brings me my weetabix"

Family Tree

Could you please send in a picture of your family to go on our Family Tree.

Small Group Work

Will commence after Half Term

Child Care Vouchers

When paying with Child Care Vouchers please attach obvious reference to your child's name to avoid any confusion.

Tapestry

For those of you who have just joined us we will be activating your Tapestry accounts in the next few weeks I hope you enjoy seeing your children's learning journals!

Red bags

Please ensure all red clothing bags are fully stocked with plenty of clean clothes. Red bags on the top pegs and coats on the lower pegs. If you have lost any items of clothing we have a lost property box which is in the cloakroom on the top of the cupboard. PLEASE clearly label everything. PLEASE TAKE CLOTHING BAGS HOME EVERYDAY. Thank you.

Library Books

We have a lovely selection of library books which we would love you to make use of so when you drop off in the morning select a new book with your child to read at bedtime!

Have a great weekend from the Windsor Kindergarten Team
